

Count 2

On January 14th, 2003 Detective _____ a member of the Peel Regional Police was on duty and working in the Criminal Investigation Bureau at 22-Division in the City of Brampton. During this time Detective _____ was the Officer In-Charge of an investigative team that had received information on a female fugitive who was wanted by the Las Vegas Police Department for murder.

On January 15th, 2003 police attended at _____ in the City of Brampton where they located _____

On January 15th, 2003 Detective _____ directed and arranged for the arrest of _____ She was returned to 22 Division and further investigation revealed that _____ was not the wanted fugitive. She was released unconditionally and returned to her residence.

Detective _____ committed misconduct by arresting Ms. _____ without conducting a proper investigation.

DISPOSITION:

Count 1 – Accepted joint submission on penalty of three (3) eight (8) hour days to be worked at the discretion of his Divisional Commander.

Count 2 – Withdrawn