- (l) "Case Manager" – is an investigator meeting the requisite qualifications of the Ontario Major Case Management System and the Ontario Policing Standards;
- (m) "PowerCase" - is a Province wide computer network utilizing common case management software. All Ontario Police Services must utilize this during the investigation of a major case. The network is capable of analyzing investigative "tombstone" data of a nature not presently captured on ViCLAS, in a central database. Investigators-in-Charge of major case investigations and the Serial and Predator Crime Unit Coordinator will be notified of any commonalities by way of an unsolicited system message;
- (n) "major case" - is defined in the Ontario Major Case Management Manual as:
 - (i) homicides within the meaning of subsection 222.(4) of the Criminal Code of Canada and attempted homicides;
 - (ii) sexual assaults, including sexual interference, and attempted sexual assaults, sexual exploitation and invitation to sexual touching;
 - (iii) non-familial abductions and attempted non-familial abductions;
 - (iv) missing person Occurrences where circumstances indicate a strong possibility of foul play;
 - (v) Occurrences, involving found human remains, that are suspected to be homicide;
 - (vi) criminal harassment where the harasser is not known to the victim; and,
 - (vii) any other types of cases designated as a major case pursuant to the Ontario Major Case Management Manual; and,
- (o) "Joint Force Operation" – is a planned operation supported by written agreement involving two (2) or more police Services with common objectives related to the investigation of multi-jurisdictional criminal activity.

Note: The definition of "Joint Force Operation" does not include situations where one police Service requests assistance from another police Service with an investigation or specific criminal Occurrence.
