

2. The criminal investigation function:
  - (a) provides resources relating to the detection, suppression and investigation of criminal acts, and selected Provincial Statutes;
  - (b) is structured to identify criminal trends in a timely manner and to activate a pro-active tactical strategy to apprehend criminals and disrupt criminal activity;
  - (c) provides services related to young offenders, children in need of protection and missing persons; and,
  - (d) includes crime prevention, and high risk offenders and Provincial parolee monitoring.

Back to Table of Contents

F. Divisional Criminal Investigation Bureaux

1. The O.I.C., C.I.B. shall be responsible for the planning, organizing, coordinating and controlling of bureau activities and programs, in order to achieve annual goals and objectives.
2. A Divisional C.I.B. is located at each of the Divisions and acts as a general investigative unit mandated to investigate criminal matters, except those allocated to Operation Support Services and the Uniform Bureaux.
3. Divisional C.I.B. personnel shall be responsible for conducting the following types of investigations:
  - (a) attempt murders;
  - (b) suicides, death of a child under the age of eighteen (18) and suspicious deaths and circumstances;
  - (c) death where an inquest is to be called;
  - (d) crime involving the use of firearms and offensive weapons;
  - (e) serious assaults;
  - (f) criminal harassment;
  - (g) arson;
  - (h) thefts (including vehicles);
  - (i) robberies that do not fall under the mandate of the Central Robbery Bureau, as outlined in section G.1.(c) of this directive;
  - (j) break and enters;
  - (k) mischief;
  - (l) bomb threats;
  - (m) missing persons;